

MUSEUM ROUNDUP

April 2010

Sedona Heritage Museum

Living History

"Bringing Water to Sedona: Ditches Past & Present"

Paul Thompson & Paul Kaiser

Oak Creek Canyon Pioneer Descendant and a Modern Day Ditch Master

Wed. April 7th, 9:00 a.m.

Thompson will talk about how the pioneers built extensive irrigation systems for their crops, and Kaiser will share the ins & outs of using and managing water today from a historic ditch

At Sedona Heritage Museum

Free Event Open to the public

Refreshments and Meet the Speakers After

"Mysteries of the Mogollon" (Muggy Own)

with Michael Peach

Mystery, Mayhem & Murder
in the Verde Valley.

Next Performance - April 3rd
1:30 p.m. at the Museum, $6

It's wedding season

To find out about holding your wedding at the Sedona
Heritage Museum, call

Kathie Hamblen

928-282-7038

sedonamuseum@
sedona.net

Jane Russell
Orson Welles
Donald O'Connor
Lois Moran Young
Ann Miller
Deborah Walley

Now Open through mid-May

Video clips
now on display

"STARS of SEDONA"

Stars who have called Sedona 'home'

Members Receive NARM Benefit

SHS members at the Supporting and Sustaining levels will soon receive info on how to use their SHS membership card at NARM museums across the U.S. for free admissions & discounts.

(Google: North American Reciprocal Museums to see a list of NARM members).

Monday at the Museum

April 5 - Red Rock Quilters
April 12 - Woodcarving
April 19 - Bread-making, $5
April 26 - Verde Valley Spinners 11:00 a.m. at the Museum

New Museum Audio Tour

$2 non-members, free for members.

Museum Association of Arizona

MAA's 2010 Annual Conference in Sedona Sedona Heritage Museum will host and make presentations on our award-winning Education Program and on our new Audio Tour

Register at www.azmuseums.org

Sedona Historical Society & Sedona Heritage Museum

